

The Inner Circle

Get into the Inner Circle!

No matter where you live or what you do, the Inner Circle is there for you. The Inner Circle is an exceptional member community of selected professionals to empower your career and social life. Let us know you're interested so we can keep you in the Inner Circle.

About

The Inner Circle is a selected, professional community joining you with other extraordinary people to enrich your life in every respect. Much more than simply networking, the mission of the Inner Circle is to connect the right people in the right situations with the right resources, support, and guidance. More rewarding career and personal lives for its members is the goal. The Inner Circle values integrity, innovation, and the exchange of knowledge.

Professional Network

Members of the Inner Circle are committed to sharing their individual and collective resources to help each other learn and grow. At the core of how members share and expand their knowledge is the triple approach of the Three Circles. As members of the Inner Circle, you not only have connections with your hand-selected peers, you also have access to the top people in your industry and extraordinary people in other industries. The Three Circles are key to maximizing your potential.

Learning & Leadership

The Inner Circle provides the highest quality guidance and post graduate-caliber business education to help its members professionally and personally. High-level experts in the field lead on-going and specific weekend workshops for members only. These workshops address issues in your industry and others, as well as career path and personal growth. A monthly newsletter keeps members in the loop of the Inner Circle.

Trusted Friendships

Members of the Inner Circle are handpicked for their individual potential as well as their potential as part of the Inner Circle. The relationships of trust members enjoy within the Inner Circle are of the highest importance. Respect and integrity are key. By design, members of the Inner Circle enjoy common ground. This and the limited chapter size facilitate trust.

The Good Life

Everyone knows that all work and no play make Jack a dull boy. The Inner Circle is about the professional and personal, work and play. They are intrinsically connected, two sides of the very same coin. The Inner Circle's schedule of events offers tons of diverse social activities so you'll be sure to find something you like.

Structure of The Inner Circle

The selected members easily find the perfect spot for themselves within the Inner Circle. First, pick your passion. Your passion is your Guild, your profession and industry. Next, your age determines what Tier you're in. Age is a good indicator of where one is in his or her career path. Then your Guild and Tier determine your Chapter, your home within the Inner Circle.

Membership

The Inner Circle accepts applications for membership from exceptional professionals. From the pool of applicants, the Inner Circle carefully selects the right people to form a diverse yet compatible group of extraordinary peers who share the same values of passion for life, openness, learning, and growth. The Inner Circle is about quality. Substance. Its about what you know and have accomplished.

Membership Criteria

The following points are considered in the Inner Circle's careful process to select the right members.

1. What is your education and experience?

The Inner Circle is interested in where you went to college and when, advanced degrees, additional training, etc. Tell us about your accomplishments and achievements, both in the workplace and outside.

2. Where do you work?

To keep each chapter diverse, the Inner Circle typically allows only one person per company in a chapter. This will be decided on a case-by-case basis and may be waived in Tier 1: ages 21-27.

3. What do you do?

Its important that each chapter has a variety of professionals with many different skills. Diverse yet compatible professionals and therefore chapters are important to the Inner Circle.

4. Do you have any special interests or access that we should know about?

Have you done or are you involved in something special, professionally or otherwise, that the Inner Circle should know about? Have you done something out of the ordinary? Do you have access to unusual venues or experiences that you could share with other members?

5. Have you held a leadership position before?

This could be acting as an officer of a nonprofit or other organization. Have you been involved in a political campaign? Have you chaired or co-chaired an event? Members who are big picture thinkers are important to the Inner Circle.

6. How old are you?

You must be at least 21 years old to apply.

Membership Responsibilities

Members of The Inner Circle are extraordinary professionals who share a lust for life and who are always interested in learning, growing, and sharing. The Inner Circle expects the members of its circle to:

- Share.
- Plan and host, with the support of a co-chair and the Inner Circle's staff, one event every two years.
- Facilitating another exceptional person's acceptance into the Inner Circle.
